Hotels

With more than 5,000 hotel rooms, Maastricht offers a diverse selection of breathtaking locations for visitors to your exhibition, conference or event to choose from. The range of accommodations boasts the same historic, international character as the city itself, with a mix of historic boutique hotels, modern design hotels and charming romantic hotels. Whether your preference is for a hotel in the lively city centre or in a quieter part of the city, Maastricht offers everything you need for a fantastic stay. The city also enjoys an excellent reputation as a culinary paradise.

City centre

Straddling both banks of the Meuse River, the city centre offers beautiful historic hotels that are so typical of Maastricht. All of these hotels are located near the city's many squares, so there's always an opportunity to enjoy drinks or a meal after the exhibition, conference or event. Most of the hotels are also located close to one another so that visitors can easily make plans to meet up even if they're not staying at the same hotel.

Around MECC Maastricht

Several hotels that are part of international chains are located in the immediate vicinity of the MECC, which is only 15 minutes from the city centre, and offer modern accommodations. There are also a few hotels that are ideal for stand builders and exhibitors which are also located within walking distance from MECC Maastricht.

Rondom de stad

On the outskirts of Maastricht lie a few particularly beautiful country estates where guests can enjoy excellent service in a lovely green and serene landscape. The more luxurious hotels also offer gorgeous gardens, lovely patio areas and relaxing spa and wellness facilities. In short, plenty of choice for a relaxing stay.

98% of our organisers choose MECC Hotel Services as their official housing partner

"Thanks to our partnership with MECC Hotel Services, we no longer have to go through the procedure of selecting, booking and negotiating the prices of hotel rooms ourselves. They even took over the handling of the reservations made by our guests. Our experience may only be described as fast, efficient, proper and friendly!"

Universiteit Maastricht – organisator - Congress of the European Accounting Association

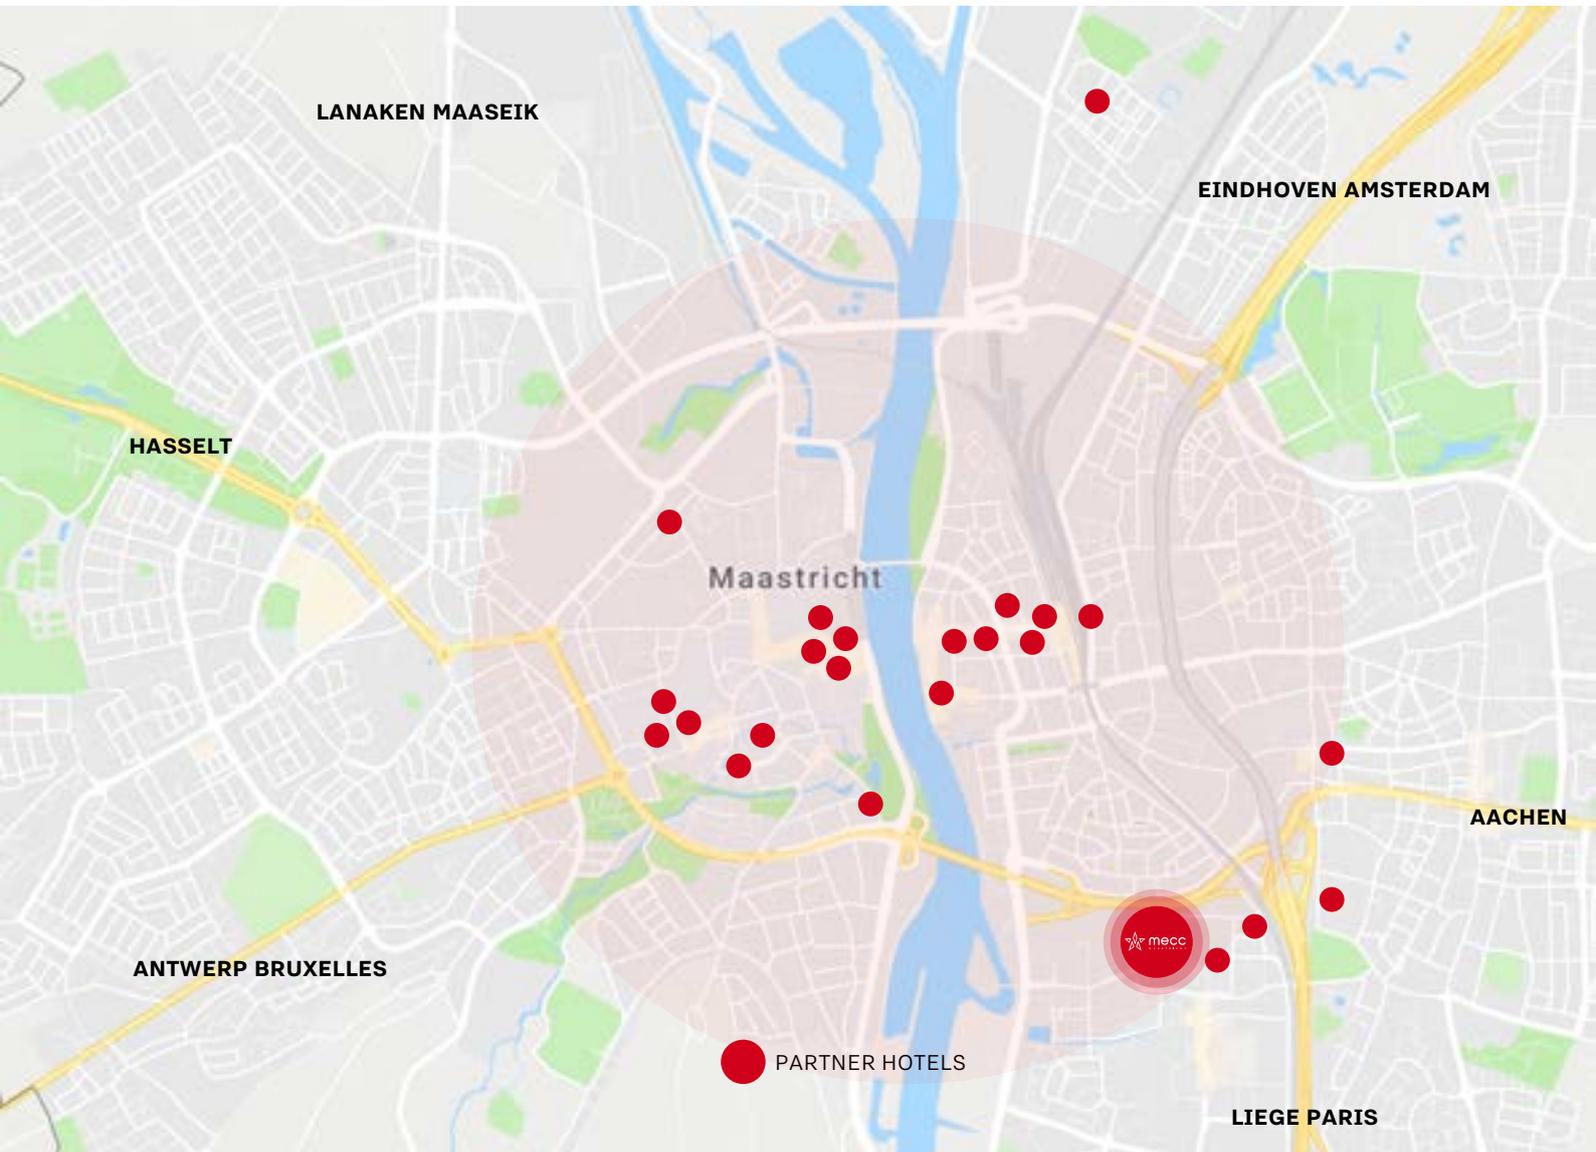

"Our participants found it easy to book their hotel rooms online and in a variety of price classes thanks to the MECC Hotel Services user-friendly reservation system. This saved us a lot of time. Everything was handled well and extremely fast!"

Medicongres – professionele congresorganisator - Extreme Ultraviolet (EUV) Lithography Symposium

"Thanks to MECC Hotel Services, we only had one contact person who handled all our accommodation and conference registration activities. Efficient and effective!"

Medtronic - exposanten – European Vascular Course

We make sure your transport stays on track

Customised transport services

Service, a professional attitude, and creativity are the key values we apply in creating a customised transport plan. In addition to all our knowledge about accommodations in and around Maastricht, we are also experts at getting people to their destination, quickly and efficiently. It goes without saying that we can ensure comfortable and worry-free transport to get your participants to MECC Maastricht.

Specialists ensure top-quality transport

Which mode of transport is ideal for getting your participants to and from the airport and to the event location? And how will they get from to their hotel to the event location and back each day? We work with specialised partners, who have been running their businesses full-throttle for years. A few examples of the possibilities:

- transfers to and from the airports;
- group transport to and from a specific location;
- transport to and from the hotels in Maastricht and surrounding area;
- special city bus arrangements (public transport).

Cost-effective airport transfers

Our service goes far. Visitors to MECC Maastricht can book transfers to and from various airports thanks to a user-friendly reservation system.

For further information and/or questions, please don't hesitate to contact us. We are happy to be of service!
